

Your Fall Weddings: Charming Autumn Venues

If you're looking for a bewitching season to wed, I invite you to choose Fall. The changing leaves and cool breeze create a beautiful setting for a wedding. From Fall food fare to pumpkin and mum centerpieces, your wedding will be memorable as you set it apart from the all too beloved summer affairs. It's a trend that many contemporary wedding planners and brides adore.

The bride will glow gold on her big day and your guests will cozy up while witnessing the warm unity before them. There are multiple locations for the setting and with Autumn as your backdrop, you can't go wrong in your selection. Wedding Bell Invitations scouted the popular Fall locations from east to west and compiled a short list of our favorites. Once you choose the locale of your imagination, browse our invitations (Link to invitations, I would but the site was down) to find the one that matches your celebration.

The Omni Grove Park, Asheville NC

Omni Resorts at The Grove Park Inn in Asheville, NC is surrounded by Autumn charm and a five star selection. The Blue Ridge Mountains offer Southern grace and rich foliage to any event. With three different venues on location, the Bride & Groom are sure to find the one to meet their needs, whether it is indoors or outdoors. Each event is to be catered by their award-winning executive chef and menu selections of your choosing.

The venue is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and lives up to that reputation. The Omni caters to wedding parties large and small, your 200 guest wedding will be happy on the Vanderbilt Terrace while the twenty-guest affairs will feel quaint at Elaine's Atrium. With The Blue Ridge Mountains, appetizing food and friends by your side, this Autumn wedding will be one to remember.

T Lazy 7 Ranch, Aspen CO

Colorado's T Lazy 7 Ranch just celebrated its 76th anniversary, 76 years and going strong. The ranch is located at the base of the world famous Maroon Bells, a local hot spot during the Autumn months. Folks from all of the country will travel to the Maroon Bells to observe the changing leaves. Wedding Ceremonies are hosted in the gorgeous meadow on the grounds of the ranch. And if the outline of the Aspens aren't enough for stunning scenery, the 14,000-foot Pyramid Peak will add any missing dramatic affects.

Alcohol and bartenders are provided by the Ranch for your special day, taking a little of the planning and headache off of you and your spouse to be. There are no hard rules when renting The Meadow, you may bring your own outside vendors, furniture and music; the big day really is up to you. If an easy to work with venue and The Maroon Bells don't make a perfect day, I don't know what does.

West Coast: Yosemite Valley Chappel, Yosemite National Park

Yosemite National Park in California is an appealing adventure anytime of the year, but the park truly boasts in the Fall. The National Park is fit with water holes, cliffs and ever-changing foliage, giving visitors the full experience of nature. The greenery that presents itself in this forest creates a setting of awe for any event.

Yosemite Valley Chappel is tucked away in Yosemite Valley, a beloved spot among guests. The chapel itself is quaint and pleasant, it's not overdone and it allows nature to speak loudly and proudly. Ceremonies occur either indoors or outdoors, depending on preference and weather related issues. Wedding parties will be granted with an onsite wedding coordinator to assist in planning the big event. There you have it, three of our favorite Fall destination locations. We are positive that there are hundreds, even thousands of other locations worth mentioning. With that being said, we invite you to add to this list by commenting below, let's encourage the beauty of Autumn Weddings!
